

Assessment

Stand-alone
Psychometric Testing

Occupational Personality Questionnaires Verbal and Numerical Reasoning Tests

for candidate assessment, team building or management development

Protocol National College Leadership Services is by far the largest provider of senior recruitment and selection support to the college sector, with a track record of success which is second to none.

Support for HR teams

We are pleased to offer a service in stand-alone psychometric testing to support HR departments in their own management of interview/assessment days, team building events or professional/management development work through Tara Ali, the sector's best-known assessment specialist.

- Occupational Personality Questionnaires (OPQs)

The 'Rolls-Royce' product – the SHL on-line Expert System, with one-to-one follow-up meetings, analysis and feedback

Up to six candidates £1,200 + VAT and expenses

- Verbal and Numerical Reasoning Tests

With scoring and feedback

Up to six candidates £800 + VAT and expenses

Custom assessment activities

Other psychometric activities – such as Critical Thinking tests – are available by request.

In addition, we would be very happy to quote for other numbers of candidates or for other custom assessment activities (and assessment sheets), including group exercises, strategic written tasks, interview questions or presentations. We produce these to order on your topics.

Psychometric consultant

Tara Ali BA, MCIPD

A Psychological Society-qualified psychometric consultant, Tara was a recruitment manager with British Airways before she took on the role of Recruitment Services Manager with the AoC, after which she was an associate with Tribal for three years. Perhaps the best-known assessment specialist in the sector, Tara has worked with every type of college during the last six years.

More information?

Contact Becky Nichols on 0115 911 1284 or e-mail bnichols@protocol-national.co.uk to find out more.